

ELMER NIELSEN, Architect
Consultant

EXPERIENCE

As a licensed architect, Mr. Nielsen's qualifications include a wide range of experience with both architectural and engineering firms as well as contractors and construction managers.

His areas of expertise cover the design and rehabilitation of buildings for educational, health care, industrial, residential, financial, and commercial structures. His responsibilities consist of construction contract to project completion through construction administration for owners, developers, municipalities, and governmental agencies.

Mr. Nielsen's expertise includes business development, feasibility studies, due diligence, budget preparation, estimating, construction document preparation and review, peer review, scheduling, construction administration and closeout verification.

EDUCATION

B.S. Architecture - University of Illinois

REGISTRATIONS

Architect - Illinois

PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

Society of American Registered Architects (SARA)